

Associate in Investment Banking (m/f)

IEG – Investment Banking Group is one of the leading, global independent investment banking boutiques focused on Mergers & Acquisitions, Financing & Corporate Advisory for Internet, Technology & Services. Locally present in the key international growth regions and/or emerging markets, IEG – Investment Banking Group is a unique, influential and trusted partner for growth companies and larger, international corporates. Due to the structural focus on all topics related to digitization, our clients benefit from our market know-how in the segments Internet, Technology and Services and our international and local presence. In the last 12 months, the team of IEG could successfully complete 17 transactions. To continue this growth and to strengthen our team of 100 professionals worldwide, we are looking at our head office in Berlin for an Associate (m/f).

Your responsibilities

- As project or sub-project manager, you will be jointly responsible for the successful execution of transaction mandates; in this function, you will be reporting directly to the Director or Managing Director.
- You will be in charge of the preparation and/or evaluation of convincing financing models and company value analyses, market and sector analyses.
- As part of the business development team, you will be contributing to IEG's success – e.g. by closely cooperating with our overseas offices and personally supporting our Managing Directors in the acquisition of new clients.
- We expect you to share your know-how with IEG young professionals during in-house training courses and day-to-day project work.

Your Profile

- With about 2-4 years professional experience in corporate finance at banks or consulting companies, you are already familiar with project management and staff management.
- Following the successful completion of your degree in the field of business finance, you have had the chance to obtain broad-based knowledge of M&As, financial advisory and/or strategy consulting services.
- You are able to work under pressure and dedicate yourself to the task in hand. You enjoy working in a team; analytical thinking is only one of your outstanding skills.
- You have very good Excel and PowerPoint skills and a very good command of German and English.

What you can expect from us

- In our young corporate culture, you can expect a high degree of responsibility, personal development and free scope to develop your own ideas.
- By working on our three Desks, you will gather valuable insights into all the different types of transactions, industries and markets.
- Personal contact with investors and other partners at high management levels ensures fast decision-making and efficient business processes.
